Control

Code: B101108

Do you know what controls you? In other words, what fills, and further what dominates your thinking? For some, it's a consuming relationship or addictive form of entertainment like video games or Facebook. For others, maybe it's health, education, or even a career.

The principle is clear: Whatever fills your mind controls your thoughts and behavior.

How does that relate to God's will? Simple. If you're a Christian, it's God's will for His Spirit to fill and control you. Sadly, many equate being Spirit-filled with some of the most bizarre and outlandish behavior, but Scripture is clear about what constitutes a Spirit-filled life—and what doesn't. Listen in, as John MacArthur explains...
