John MacArthur on Evangelism

Scripture: John 3:1–21

Code: B130301

First of all, thank you for your enthusiastic participation on the blog this week. We sincerely hope this series will bear much spiritual fruit in the coming days and weeks, as current events provide you opportunities to interact with friends and family concerning God's Word and the Roman Catholic Church.

We want to bring a close to this series by allowing John MacArthur to speak directly to you. Throughout the week we've repeatedly affirmed that Catholics are not the enemy, but the mission field. Nothing we've posted has any lasting value if we're not actively using the truth presented here to call people out of the damning darkness of the Catholic Church to biblical repentance and faith.

With that in mind, we asked John how he would personally bring God's truth to a Catholic friend or family member. We trust his words will be instructive and encouraging to you.
