What Do Cessationists Have in Common with the Reformers?

Scripture: 2 Peter 1:16–21

Code: B130604

Dr. Steve Lawson is a dedicated student of the Reformation and the great Christian men behind it. His understanding of modern church trends is heavily informed by his knowledge of the theological wars that have been waged throughout church history. And the crucial battles fought by the Reformers in the fifteen hundreds provide valuable lessons in assessing the twenty-first-century church landscape.

In the following video, Dr. Lawson points out the common ground that contemporary cessationists share with the Reformers of five hundred years ago.

The Strange Fire conference will provide a much-needed response to the extrabiblical revelation synonymous with the charismatic movement, and will affirm the authority and sufficiency of Scripture.
