Ready to Discriminate?

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 6:14–17

Code: B100216

John MacArthur is advocating a special, particular kind of discrimination that needs to happen if the Christian church is to remain healthy and pure. It may not be culturally sensitive to say so, but it's right, and loving too.

Do you think John has made the case for this particular kind of discrimination in the Christian church? Why or why not?

If he has, what do you think of the standard he has proposed?
